

POSTERIOR DISTRIBUTION OF THE SLOPE

- The posterior median ($\beta_1 = 0.62$) is the most likely parameter value, and the standard deviation ($SD_\beta = 0.06$) quantifies uncertainty
- $\beta_1 = 0$ is unlikely because this value falls well outside the 95% credible interval (0.49, 0.74)

